

LATTICE

Linking All Types of Teachers to International, Cross-cultural Education

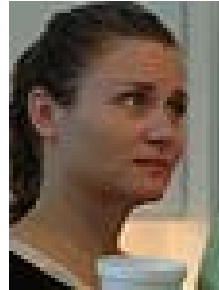

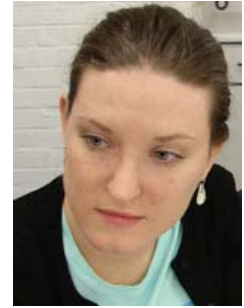

LATTICE Awardees 2006-2007

John Metzler is taking Linda Dow and Heidi Irvine-Mattarellamicke to South Africa this summer on a Fulbright Scholarship. They will travel with several other teachers and 2 grad students and will see Eddie Daniels, the South African Author that many Lattice members met in October.

Katie Robiadek, Professional Dancer with, and Artist Representative to the Board of Directors of Happendance awarded a 3 month Cultural Ambassadorial Scholarship for language immersion from the Rotary Foundation. She will study Spanish language and culture in Granada, Spain during summer 2007.

Stefanie Kendall was awarded a "Globie" at the first annual Globie awards lunch sponsored by the Office of International Students and Scholars, OISS. Stefanie was recognized because of the support she organized for the Hasan Abdel Kareem's family while he was unable to get his visa to return to the USA.

LATTICE Spring 2007 Fellowship Awardees

Alicia Troman
Geofred Osoro
Kang Li
Marcus Rick
Norseha Unin
Won Pyo Hong
Yan Zheng
Hasan Abdel-Kareem/Stefanie Kendal

Congratulations to Jack Schwille on the recent publication of a book entitled GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES ON TEACHER LEARNING: POLICY AND PRACTICE.

Parama Sarka won the Special College Research Abroad Money (SCRAM) fellowship from the College of Arts and Letters for Summer research abroad.

Awardees and more awardees.....

Kristin Janka Millar – Homer Higbee International Education Award
Norseha Unin – Homer Higbee International Education Award
Jack & Kristin – International Education Research Grant